

BASIC OPHTHALMIC EXAM AND DIAGNOSTICS

Course Description:

Tips and Tricks to perform a basic comprehensive ocular examination and interpret findings. Discussion of the basic ocular examination and diagnostics using tools commonly found in general practice. Learn to use your equipment to its full potential and interpret findings to aid in diagnosis and treatment. Lecture with practical lab to follow. The lab will include an examination of normal and abnormal patients. Performing basic ophthalmic diagnostics including Schirmer tear test, fluorescein dye, and intraocular pressures. CE certificate, beverages, snacks, and lunch are provided.

Speaker:

Kelli Combs Ramey

DVM, Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists

April 13, 2024

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Calgary Animal Eye Care (Calgary, AB)

ADVANCED OPHTHALMIC EXAM AND DIAGNOSTICS

Course Description:

Take your ocular examination to the next level and refine your skills. Discussion of advanced examination tools and diagnostics including slit lamp biomicroscopy, binocular indirect ophthalmoscopy, ocular ultrasound and more. Lecture with practical lab to follow. The lab will include an examination of normal and abnormal patients. Use advanced examination equipment and ocular ultrasound. CE certificate, beverages, snacks, and lunch are provided.

Speaker:

Kelli Combs Ramey

DVM, Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Ophthalmologists

April 14, 2024

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Calgary Animal Eye Care (Calgary, AB)

To register please contact your Eickemeyer Representative or email us.

You can also visit our Education page on our website eickemeyercanada.ca

